Mr. Sydney P. Nor. Secy,
Am. Num. Socy. N. Y.

Dear Sir,

Would be very glad to have you obtain one of the Lincoln
Centennial Medals by Poine
for me struck in Silver.

As to waiting two weeks,
That will be perfectly all right. Yours sincerely,

H. A. Gray.

H. A. Gray, Esq.
41 Rockland Street
Roxbury, Mass.

Dear Mr. Gray:

Thank you for your letter of August 19th. Since writing you, we have located a silver copy of the Lincoln medal, and it will be unnecessary for you to await the striking of another copy. This is being sent you today, under separate cover.

Thanking you for your orders,

Very truly yours,

Secretary
